Re: United States v. Jaime Cassuto et al., 10 Cr. 709 (GBD)

Dear Judge Daniels:

Pursuant to our last conference on January 13, 2012, the above captioned matter is scheduled for trial before Your Honor on April 23, 2012. In consenting to that date, I failed to notice that my associate, Charli Baldinger, had a longstanding and pre-paid trip scheduled for that week. Ms. Baldinger has been actively involved in this matter since its inception and has played a significant role in our trial preparation. It was always my hope that she would be able to attend and participate in the trial. As such, this letter is respectfully submitted to request that the trial commence on April 30, 2012.

We have contacted Assistant United States Attorney Niketh Velamour and co-counsel and all parties consent to the instant request.

We understand that the instant request may conflict with the Court's trial schedule and we will of course proceed as scheduled in the event the court cannot accommodate this request.

We sincerely appreciate the Court's consideration in this matter and apologize for any inconvenience.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation.

Very Truly Yours,

JAMES KOUSSOUROS, ESQ.
Attorney for defendant Isaak Khafizov
